Authorized VW Dealers use a new service system specially developed for the VW.

Lots of service stations say they can repair Volkswagen and a lot of them really can.

But they cannot offer you VW Diagnosis and Maintenance — our new service system.

Instead of giving every VW the same basic maintenance, we now treat each one as an individual.

This means your VW is thoroughly checked by a specially trained Diagnostician using special testing equipment. And that means your car gets just the maintenance it needs. No more, no less.

And you get a Test Report — so you know the exact condition of your VW.

It's something you should know about the car you drive.
